KINGSVILLE.

The election "passed off quietly." Both parties seemed in fine humor. Perhaps it was the weather, but at any rate there was great equanimity displayed on all sides.

The death of Judge Warren has occasioned much regret here and sympathy for his family and fellow townsmen. Judge Warren was popular in the South End and his death is hard to realize, as when we saw him last he was so very jovial and vigorous looking.

Mr. and Mrs. Robin Rigney, daughter, Mrs. Craig Butt, and children returned from Somerset Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bastin returned Tuesday from a visit to relatives in Pulaski. J. Ed Boland is here from Lexington. Messrs. Harry Stone and J. W. Boland, of Charleston, W. Va., and Lexington, were here buying ties for the Greenbriar Pole Co. Mr. Engleman, of the North End, is the new day man at the tower. John Singleton and wife, of Waynesburg, were here Monday to see their daughter, Mrs. E. D. Carey, who is ill. Miss Ethel Lee is visiting relatives at Somerset. Mrs. Amanda Lee, of Somerset, was the guest of relatives here. Miss Eva Francis is with her sister, Mrs. W. L. McCarty, at Stanford. Messrs. W. L. and J. M. McCarty, of Stanford, came over Tuesday to vote.

Dr. C. M. Thompson was in Cincinnati Thursday. Mrs. Tabitha Davidson is with McKinney relatives. Mrs. George Rigney has returned from a visit to her son, Edgar Rigney, who has been attending the Morse School of Telegraphy at Cincinnati. Ed Rigney and Will Leach are at home from Cincinnati, where they have been attending school. Little Ethel, the pretty daughter of Craig Butt, of Somerset, has returned home after a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robin Rigney. Mrs. Lola McKeithan and little son have returned to Covington, Tenn., after a visit to her mother here. Mr. Parks, the inspector, was here this week. Harry Stout, of Charleston, and J. W. Boland, Lexington, were here this week buying ties, etc., for the Greenbriar Pole Co. Your correspondent went to Danville Saturday and returned this week from a pleasant visit to the families of W. A. and J. O. Vandivier, of Harrodsburg, and Mrs. B. P. Shewmaker, of Moreland, relatives of Mr. Haldon B. Vandivier, who was killed by Harve Watts in September.

To find in the State of Kentucky a man who has lived to be 62 years of age and who has never cast a vote at any election, either national, State or county, is to discover a refutation of the adage, "There is nothing new under the sun." Such a man lives, in the person of Josiah Morris, whose home is in the Woodburn section of Warren county. He was among the County Court day crowd at Franklin, Monday, and is a substantial and respected citizen. Not in the matter of exercising his right of suffrage alone is Mr. Morris unusual, for he was never identified with the courts of the State in any capacity except on one occasion when he gave testimony as a witness in a trial suit. He is not a member of any church of fraternal organization. Mr. Morris is a refined gentleman, a reader of newspapers, and consequently well informed.—Warren County Courier.

Biliousness and Constipation.
"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally."—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

Under a tall sycamore in an old-fashioned New England graveyard lie the bones of a once distinguished lawyer. His grave is marked only with a plain headstone containing his name and this epitaph:

"Here lies a lawyer and an honest man." An Irishman invaded the burying-place one day and, after reading the epitaph a second time, remarked: "There must be two men in that grave."

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good, reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all Druggists.

The Old Whitley House in the East End.

About 2½ miles from the little village of Crab Orchard stands the oldest brick house in Kentucky. It was built by Col. Wm. Whitley in 1783. Col. Whitley was one of the first settlers of Kentucky. He was a comrade of Boone, Kenton, Henderson and Clark. After leaving the forts of Boonesboro and Logan he came to the present site of Crab Orchard and erected the first brick house in the State. Mr. Whitley went to Virginia to secure the material with which to furnish his house. The house is very quaintly built and ornamented with many carvings. It is a 2½ story house situated on an eminence called "Sportsman Hill" by Col. Whitley. On each end of the house glazed brick are arranged so as to form diamonds, which adds much to its appearance. The windows are built seven feet from the ground as a protection from the Indians. The doors are made of two layers of plank put on a frame diagonally and driven full of nails. As no locks were obtainable in those days, bars were used to fasten the doors. We first enter the large and spacious hallway, which contains the noted stairway of 13 steps to the first landing, upon which is carved on the end of each an eagle head representing the 13 States and the bird of our country. And on the left of this hall we enter the parlor room, which is beautifully carved. Among the other carvings there are 13 large S's directly over the mantel piece which also represent the 13 States. Upon the right of the hall is the family, or living room, which contains large presses in the wall that extend from the floor to the ceiling, all of which are carved in small squares and a small press near the fire place that was reserved for the exclusive use of Col. Whitley's guns, horns, belt, powder and lead, which until this day is called the "gun press." The third story of this famous old house was used for a delightful ball room. Beneath the house is an immense cellar which was used as a hiding place from the Indians. In the third story of the house there are loose brick which are easily removed to be used as port holes in case of an attack from the Indians. Col. and Mrs. Whitley's initials appear over the front door and are formed of glazed brick, but in later years a veranda has been constructed over the initials and they are invisible. In years past there was a beautiful avenue that extended from the house to the road. The avenue was three quarters of a mile in length and a half mile in breadth.—Katherine McAllister Middleton, great grand daughter of Col. Whitley.

When the stomach, heart or kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the stomach, nor stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's restorative. The restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample test sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Penny's Drug Store.

The case pending against Mayor C. E. Woods, of Richmond, for inspecting a "suit case" in the early days of local option, was taken up by the grand jury and after investigation was dismissed. In addition the grand jury passed a resolution and ordered it entered on record, indorsing all the Mayor had done in his efforts to catch and punish the evaders of local option.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proven to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.—Rev. Jas. A. Lewis, pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by all Druggists.

"Let me kiss those tears away?" he begged tenderly. She fell for it, and he was busy for the next 15 minutes. And yet the tears flowed on. "Can nothing stop them?" he asked, breathlessly sad.

"Nope," she murmured. "It's hay fever, you know. But go on with the treatment."—Cleveland Leader.

A Reliable Remedy For Croup.

Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Medicine for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by all Druggists.

Night riders burned two houses on the farm of a Mr. Hendrix, in Trigg county, after forcing him to leave his home and show them where the buildings were located. One of the houses was occupied and the tenants were forced to leave and remove their furniture, after which the torch was applied.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, 50c.

"The stay-at-home vote did it." This is what Judge S. W. Hager, Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, State Chairman Henry B. Hines and a score of other Democrats at State headquarters say concerning the falling off in the Democratic vote reported from nearly every county in the State. "The Republicans did not show any increase over the vote for Roosevelt or Yerkes," they declared with great earnestness. "The Democrats simply stayed at home."

"About the greatest man that ever lived in this community was Dug Skinner—broad-minded, big-hearted and brilliant—and yet he died with all his talents and goodness unsuspected."

"How did you come to find out about it?"

"I married his widow."—Houston Post.

Clyde Campbell was killed, his father, W. R. Campbell, was seriously wounded, Policeman Michael Murphy was fatally shot and Policeman Marion Smith seriously wounded in a pistol battle in Lexington. The officers had arrested W. R. Campbell, a republican candidate for councilman, for carrying a pistol, when Clyde Campbell interfered and started the shooting. The elder Campbell formerly lived in the Kingsville section of this county.

After a few months of failing health and a short illness, Judge Richard C. Warren died at his home in Stanford, surrounded by most of the members of his large family. Judge Warren was a prominent figure of the Stanford bar and in politics of the Eighth district. He served the county of his adoption as Representative in the Legislature, master commissioner and was county judge at the time of his death, making a record of honesty and efficiency. He was a brother-in-law of Ex-Gov. Bradley and brother of Dr. Ike Warren, of Somerset. For many years he wore the sobriquet of "Honest Dick," and was ever true to his friends and to the people who honored him with their suffrage and confidence.—Somerset Journal.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
